NINETEENTH YEAR, No. 4

GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY April 15, 1925.

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00 A YEAR

COURT OF REVISION

Minutes of the Court of Revision for hearing appeals against the 1925 assessment held in the Town office, Wednesday, April 8th, 1925.

Present Mayor Michael, Councillors Wright, Kelly, Brown, Ferguson and Moss.

Ald. Wright and Brown: That we take all the evidence in regard to appeals and the secretary notify each appellant of the decision of the court. Carried.

Canadian Bank of Commerce re Business tax. L. Cuthbert, manager, claimed that the rental value was excessive. The actual rental of the whole building was $1250.00. The upper floor was residential and should be charged at least one-third of the rent. The remainder, used for business purposes, be charged the balance $833.00. He also appealed on the grounds that similar business should be charged similar rates. The floor space was about 1250 square feet.

Ald. Ferguson and Brown: That the Bank of Commerce appeal be granted and that they be assessed a rental value of $835. Carried.

Royal Bank of Canada re Business tax. D. Hutcheson, manager, claimed that the assessment was excessive. The rental charge against the building was $600. The floor space was about 912 square feet.

Ald. Kelly and Moss: That the Royal Bank appeal be granted and that they be assessed on a rental basis of $600. Carried.

Blackfoot Municipal District assessment of lots. The assessor explained while seven lots were shown on the registered plan, owing to the irregular shape of the property there was an area equalling about 6 1/2 lots. The lots were assessed less than those on the opposite side of the street. Mr. Hyndman claimed that they were not worth more than the price at which the town was disposing of lots in town that is from ten to fifteen dollars.

Ald. Wright: That the lots be assessed at $5.00 each. No second.

Ald. Kelly and Brown: That the lots be assessed at $50.00 per lot. Carried. Three for, two against.

C. B. Hyndman: Assessment of lots. Mr. Hyndman claimed that the lots were assessed too high and were not worth $10.00 each. The C. P. R. land immediately opposite was assessed at $50.00 an acre and as there were ten lots to an acre the prices should be on a proportionate basis, or approximately so, as a lot was worth no more than it could produce agriculturally. He also referred to the fact that there was no sale for lots and stated that the town was giving them away.

Ald. Ferguson and Moss: That Mr. Hyndman's lots, 41-42, Block 4 be reduced to $25.00 per lot. Carried.

Ald. Brown and Ferguson: That Mr. Hyndman's lots, 12-13, Block G, stand as assessed. Carried.

J. H. Wright: Assessment of lots. Mr. Wright claimed that the lots were assessed too high. He had put a value on them of $15 each and even that value was doubtful as he had offered them to different parties and no one would buy them at that price. He considered that the true value of lots was the price obtained by the town for lots forfeited and sold under the provisions of the Tax Recovery Act.

Ald. Ferguson and Brown: That lots 5, 6, 7, 8, Block D stand as assessed. Three for and one against. Carried.

Ald. Kelly and Ferguson: That lots 9, 10, 11, and 12, Block D, be reduced to $25 per lot. Carried.

Queen's Hotel assessment, appealed by L. Michael for the Town Council.

Mr. Stubbs claimed that the figures he had given the assessor were correct and he was quite satisfied that the assessment was fair. Answering a question in regard to the number of bricks in the building and the quantity of lumber used, he stated that he was not in a position to give any figures in regard to that as he had brought no data with him, nor could he say what the actual value of the building was.

Councillor Wright explained that the Council was not satisfied with the

GLEICHEN WILL CELEBRATE VICTORIA DAY, MAY 25TH

As usual the Gleichen Agricultural Association will celebrate Victoria Day this year. However, as Victoria Day falls on Sunday this year, Monday, May 25th will be duly observed.

Already the committee has started in to make preparations for a gala day, and while the program is far from complete the outstanding features will be football, baseball, basketball and general sports, including a big parade—don't forget a BIG PARADE.

This celebration will have as its main objectives First to have a real day's sport and second to raise sufficient funds to make our annual payment on the Fair Grounds.

Everyone enjoys our fine fair grounds and everyone, therefore, should help meet the annual payment, so get busy and work and talk to make Victoria Day 1925 sports the biggest success yet.

EASTER AT THE UNION CHURCH

The special program of services for the Easter season was carried out through quite successfully at the Union Church. The reception of new members and preparatory service on Good Friday evening was well attended and twenty members were added to the communion roll of the congregation. This is largely the result of the mission held during the winter.

The open session of the Sunday School on Sunday morning had an attendance of two hundred and twenty four. This is the largest attendance of which we have any record during the past several years. The Beavers class had the church beautifully decorated and the Easter numbers by the children were much appreciated.

At the communion service in the afternoon nearly fifty persons made their communion. As is fitting in service was quiet and devotional, in keeping with the day and the occasion.

The evening service as carried on under real difficulties the failure of the light service was a real embarrassment. The church was filled in spite of the poor light the choir rendered the special numbers which rendered the special service in they had prepared. The day was in every way a success and blessing.

Fourteen Trail Rangers took the trail for the river on Monday morning, leaving town at eight thirty. The day was spent by the river and the weather conditions were ideal for the time of year. Camp fires and amateur cooking were important features of the days activities. The return trip was made in time to permit the boys who wished to do so to attend the entertainment in the hall.

St. Victor's Catholic Church will hold a sale of aprons and a whist drive in the Gleichen Community Hall club room on Saturday afternoon, April 18, at 3 o'clock. Tea will be served. Everybody is invited. Admission 35c.

The friends of W. E. McCluskey will regret to learn that under the doctor's orders he is leaving Gleichen at once and will sell all his effects on Friday, April 17th.

assessment and thought it should be raised. Mr. Stubbs said that he was satisfied that the building was not worth more.

Ald. Wright: That the Queen's Hotel building be assessed at $18,000 gross valuation. No second.

Ald. Ferguson and Kelly: That the Queen's Hotel building be assessed at $16,000 gross valuation. Carried. Four for and one against.

DRAMA PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Hats off to the Gleichen Women's Institute.

They have achieved an undertaking few men would care attempt in the same time and under similar circumstances.

Four months ago these ladies decided to do their "bit" toward the Gleichen Community Hall and forthwith presented the committee in charge with a very fine Heintzman piano at a cost of $450.00. Monday night these ladies raised the last dollar required to pay for the piano. To use a slang expression "That's going some." More especially when it is considered that so many other attractions have been put up to earn money to help pay for the hall and various other worthy objects during the past four months.

While the ladies have given suppers, dances, theatricals and other attractions to earn this money, their effort Monday night was the crowning feature of their many successes, when they staged a most delightful four-act drama comedy entitled "Oh! Susan!"

It all meant real hard work, but they proved equal to the occasion.

This drama was no frivolous joke, but required real meritorious acting to make it a success, and we have yet to meet the critic who has nought but praise to offer in their comments.

From the very opening by Lewis' Orchestra with "O Canada" and the singing of the National Anthem there was the rapt attention throughout, and the artists were not slow in seeing they had a sympathetic and interested house which greatly stimulated them and aided them in acquitting themselves in their various roles so satisfactorily, to all concerned.

Between acts there was no long waits, the orchestra playing two selections between each, which by actual timing allowed only six minutes between acts.

To attempt to account for each member of the company or to use comparisons would be beyond the writer. Each one appeared especially adapted to his or her part and a feature that should not be overlooked is that each spoke slowly and distinctly and could be plainly heard in all parts of the hall, which also speaks well for the carrying sound of the new hall.

Special mention may be also be drawn to the stage erected for the occasion, which proved a surprise to all in attendance. It was built just sufficiently high that a splendid view was obtained from every part. The whole stage, including the screens, fire place, drapes, furniture, flowers, etc., harmonized wonderfully and showed no mean artist had a hand in its arrangement.

It should be borne in mind that few members of this amateur company had previous experience above the foot lights and it is to the great credit of Mr. L. M. Webster that he material and train the artists so efficiently; indeed, we believe Monday night's performance was even a little better than we had hoped for.

That every seat was occupied speaks well for the people of Gleichen and surrounding country, many coming from a distance.

The receipts were over $180, but the exact expenses are not all settled yet.

CAPTAIN BLOOD

RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Peter Blood, a rebel-convict under King James, becomes a buccaneer with headquarters at Tortuga. He is in love with Arabella Bishop and has rescued Maclodon d'Oregon, daughter of the governor of Tortuga from Levasseur, a French ruffian. This insures him ships and men for his enterprises. King James sends to the West Indies Lord Julian Wade as an emissary to make peace with piracy. Arabella is on the same ship, the Royal Mary.

CHAPTER XVI.—(Continued)

She had turned to face him. She was pale to the lips, and her hazel eyes were blazing, as she cut into his apologies for Blood.

"They must, indeed, if his other associates allowed him to live after that."

"Oh, the thing was done in fair fight, I am told."

"Who told you?"

"A man who sailed with them, a Frenchman named Cahusac, whom I found in a waterside tavern in St. Nicholas. He was Levasseur's lieutenant, and he was present on the island where the thing happened, and when Levasseur was killed."

"And the girl? Did he say the girl was present, too?"

"Yes. She was a witness of the encounter. Blood carried her off when he had disposed of his brother-buccaneer."

"And the dead man's followers allowed it?" He caught the note of incredulity in her voice, but missed the note of relief with which it was blent.

"Oh, I don't believe the tale. I won't believe it!"

"I honor you for that, Miss Bishop. It strained my own belief that men should be so callous, until this Cahusac afforded me the explanation. Blood purchased their consent, and his right to carry the girl off. He paid them in pearls that were worth more than twenty thousand pieces of eight."

"His lordship laughed again with a touch of contempt. 'A hand some price—'

"Your Cahusac seems to have been accurate enough. Alas!"

"You are sorry, then?"

"As we are sorry to hear of the death of one we have esteemed. Once I held him in regard for an unfortunate but worthy gentleman. Now . . . Such a man is best forgotten."

And upon that she passed at once to speak of other things.

The friendship which it was her great gift to command in all she met grew steadily between those two in the little time remaining, until the event befell that marred what was promising to be the pleasantest stage of his lordship's voyage.

The marplot was the mad-dog Spanish admiral, whom they encountered on the second day out, when half-way across the Gulf of Onofres. A shot from the Milagrosa got among some powder stored in the Royal Mary's fore-cabin and blew up half the ship almost before the fight had started. Before the men of the Royal Mary, their captain killed and a third of their number destroyed with him, the ship, yawing and rocking helplessly in a crippled state, the Spaniards boarded her.

In the captain's cabin, under the poop, to which Miss Bishop had been conducted for safety, Lord Julian was seeking to comfort and encourage her, with assurances that all would yet be well, at the very moment when Don Miguel was stepping aboard. Fortunately, Miss Bishop did not appear to be in desperate need of the poor comfort he was in case to offer. The cabin door flew open and Don Miguel strode in. Lord Julian span round to face him and clapped a hand to his sword.

The Spaniard was brisk and to the point.

"Don't be a fool," he said in his own tongue, "or you'll come by a fool's end. Your ship is sinking. Come, all of you, aboard my ship." Don Miguel invited them, and strode out.

As for the survivors in that ghastly shambles that had been the Royal Mary, they were abandoned by the Spaniards to their own resources. Let them take to the boats, and if those did not suffice them, let them swim or drown. If Lord Julian and Miss Bishop were retained, it was because Don Miguel perceived their obvious value. He received them in his cabin.

"Look," said Miss Bishop, pointing, "she is English, and she comes resolutely on."

Lord Julian commanded himself with difficulty to supply them. Then haughtily he demanded to know, in his turn, the name of their aggressor.

"I am Don Miguel de Espinosa," he answered. "Admiral of the navies of the Catholic King."

"Will you tell me, then, why you behave like a damned pirate?" Lord Julian asked. "It will cost you dear!"

"All things are possible. Meaning it is your own lives that will cost you dear. Colonel Bishop is a rich man; and you, my lord, are no doubt also rich. I will consider and fix your ransom."

"And you have the impudence to call yourself the Admiral of the navies of the Catholic King!" stormed his lordship.

"It is that I treat you English heretic dogs just as you English heretic dogs have treated Spaniards upon the seas, you robbers and thieves out of hell! I have the honesty to do it in my own name, but you, you perfidious beasts, you send your Captain Bloods, your Hagthorpes and your Morgans against us and disclaim responsibility for what they do."

"Captain Blood and the rest are not admirals of England!" cried Lord Julian.

"Are they not? How do I know? How does Spain know? Are you not liars all, you English heretics?"

"Sir!" Lord Julian's voice was harsh as a rasp, his eyes flashed. Instinctively he swung a hand to the place where his sword habitually hung. Then he shrugged and sneered: "Of course," said he, "it sorts with all I have heard of Spanish honor and all that I have seen of yours that you should insult a man who is unarmed and your prisoner."

The admiral's face flamed scarlet. He half raised his hand to strike. And then, restrained, perhaps, by the very words that had cloaked the retorting insult, he turned on his heel abruptly, and went out without answering.

The Milagrosa, with her consort, the Hidaiga, rolling after her, steered a south by westerly course, then veered to the southeast, round Cape Tiburon, and thereafter, standing well out to sea, with the land no more than a cloudy outline to leeward, she headed directly east, and so ran straight into the arms of Captain Blood, who was making for the Windward Passage. That happened early on the following morning. After having systematically hunted his enemy in vain for a year, Don Miguel chanced upon him in this unexpected and entirely fortuitous fashion. It was also the way of Fortune that Don Miguel should thus come upon the Arabella at a time when, separated from the rest of the fleet, she was alone and at a disadvantage. It looked to Don Miguel as if the luck which so long had been on Blood's side had at last veered in his own favor.

Ramsay MacDonald Conquered Poverty

Ex-Premier of Britain Had Struggle During Boyhood

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, describing a visit to Chequers, gives the following interesting anecdote of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's early struggles: "There rises from the grounds a gentle hill, where Ramsay and I took a stroll after luncheon. I have reason to remember that stroll by the fact that when we began to talk together like old comrades (for I have known him more than 40 years) of the bitter struggles of our early lives, and when I told him how often I had gone hungry, he told me that once he found himself in Fleet Street with three-pence in his pocket; that he had sought the job of selling newspapers in the streets and failed; that he had sought the position of 'bus conductor, and failed. Nothing, I think, is more remarkable or more commendable in his career than that splendid Scotch grit which enabled him to live through and conquer the terrible strain of poverty and friendlessness in the City of London."

A Gentleman and Sportsman

Winners in English Law Suit Entered by Loser

Having lost a traffic action, in which he has been for eight years concerned with the urban authority at Weston-super-Mare, England, Henry Butt entered the urban council and its officials to dinner and handed to the chairman of the council a cheque for several thousand pounds to cover the cost of a park in the centre of the town.

Mr. Butt said he wished to recognize the unbroken friendship which had existed during the years of litigation which had involved £23,000 in costs. He was defeated, but he was a sportsman, and as he had acquired a fair amount of wealth in the town he loved, he felt that he owed Weston something.

He congratulated the council and officials on winning a fair fight, and considered it unique that the defeated defendant should entertain the victors and present both a cheque and a blessing.

During 20 recent days Mr. Butt raised £20,000 in aid of the local hospital.

Charwoman Was Honest

Mrs. Stanton, charwoman employed by the Montreal Tramways Company, while scrubbing the floor of a car one night recently, found an unmarked envelope containing $310 in bills. Looking in the "want ads," she came across an advertisement announcing the loss of the money, which she immediately returned to its owner, a cook in the employ of Roderick Kane.

Tells Why He Can Now Eat Hearty

"A letter which I read in the paper about Carter's Little Liver Pills fitted my own case so closely that I could not help trying them and am very happy I did." So writes Mr. Frank J. Trumbull of Jersey City, N. J., whose letter goes on to say, "I had heard about Carter's Little Liver Pills for years but never knew they helped overcome poor appetite and sour stomach, until I read about another man in the same plight who took Carter's with good results. I tried them and can honestly say that they freed me of nasty gas on stomach, so that I can now eat without getting bilious, and they improved my appetite fully 100%. You can rest assured that from now on I will boost Carter's Little Liver Pills whenever I can."

Potato Was Once Delicacy

British Consumer Regarded It With Doubt and Suspicion

The potato went through a long season of doubt and suspicion before it was accepted as a wholesome article of diet by the British consumer. A seventeenth century Scots treatise on "Husbandry Anatomized" had recommended the cultivation of the potato on a large scale, with hints as to its preparation for the table. But it was long before the potato emerged from the sphere of tentative horticulture. It continued to sell by the ounce as a rare delicacy; and as late as 1740 two sackfuls of potatoes sufficed on a market day for the 5,000 inhabitants of Paisley. Consternation reigned in South Uist when the chief of the clan proposed to cultivate a potato crop, and only under threat of imprisonment were the inhabitants induced to lend their aid for the sowing. Years of famine played their part in reconciling the Highland crofters to the consumption of this uncanny newfangled product.

Misspelled Words Are Inexcusable

Careful Correspondents Will Consult Dictionary If In Doubt

Good spellers are both born and made. It is rather taken for granted that one spells accurately. A letter with misspelled words is quite inexcusable. It indicates indolence because no one need misspell a word if he will take the trouble to look it up. There are many careful correspondents who are not naturally good spellers who keep a dictionary close at hand for that very reason.

It is probably true that our grandparents were better spellers than we are. They were drilled in the old-fashioned way, being obliged to stand up and spell before the whole school. "Headmarks" in the spelling classes counted those days and if a boy or girl spelt "Hemorrhage" with one "r" the chances were they never forgot that that is the way not to spell it.

The old-fashioned spelling-bee has much to commend it. It is good discipline with a lot of fun to boot.—Detroit News.

Measuring Size Of Raindrops

Experts Discover They Are Larger In Summer Than Winter

Weather experts once set out upon the laborious task of measuring the dimensions of raindrops, and found that the largest were about one-sixth of an inch and the smallest one-fifth-hundredth of an inch in diameter. An interesting fact which was discovered was that raindrops are larger in summer than in winter, and larger in hot than in cold climates. At the moment of condensation of the water vapor to the liquid state, great numbers of extremely small drops are formed close together. As they fall they merge and thus what we call raindrops are formed. The size of the drop when it reaches the earth depends upon the height from which it has fallen. Now, in summer, the air is warmer than in winter, and, therefore, clouds are formed at a greater height, where conditions are favorable for rapid condensation.

What Advertising Means

A Good Definition of Advertising in Condensed Form

"Advertising—the force which enables the modern business man to disregard the distance between himself and his prospective customers."

"The force which gives him a million eloquent tongues with which to tell his business story to the world. 'The force which enables him to create new desires and to point out new ways of supplying old needs.'"

"The force, which, properly directed, will make a worthy business prosper, but which, no matter how cleverly applied, cannot give permanence to an enterprise founded on falsehood."

"The force by which a business may be built or wrecked, and which, in the last analysis, brings to him who uses it just that measure of success that his efforts deserve."

SPRING WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The Canadian Spring weather—one day mild and bright; the next raw and blustery, is extremely hard on the baby. Conditions are such that the mother cannot take the little one out for the fresh air so much to be desired. He is confined to the house which is often over-heated and badly ventilated. He catches cold; his little stomach and bowels become disordered and the mother soon has a sick baby to look after. To prevent this an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets should be given. They regulate the stomach and bowels, thus preventing or relieving colds, simple fevers, colic or any other of the many minor ills of childhood. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Toronto Mother Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ontario.—"I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a splendid medicine to take before and after confinement. A small book was put in my door one day advertising Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines, and as I did not feel at all well at the time I went and got a bottle of Vegetable Compound right away. I soon began to notice a difference in my general health. I was full of aches and pains at the time and thought I had every complaint going, but I can truthfully say your medicine certainly did me good. I can and will speak highly of it, and I know it will do other women good who are sick and ailing if they will only give it a fair trial. Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills are splendid for constipation. You are welcome to use my letter if you think it will help any one."—Mrs. HARRY WESTWOOD, 543 Quebec Street, Toronto, Ontario.

The expectant mother is wise if she considers carefully this statement of Mrs. Westwood. It is but one of a great many, all telling the same story—beneficial results.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for use during this period. The experience of other women who have found this medicine a blessing is proof of its great merit. Why not try it now yourself?

SWAT THAT FLY RIGHT NOW

The time of year to swat the fly is right now. A little cleaning at this season will do much to prevent a plentiful supply of flies a little later.

Eradicating possible breeding places for flies now will be much easier than to kill the crop when it appears a few weeks hence. To that end all rubbish piles or other attractive spots for fly culture should be destroyed or removed at this time.

A swat at the fly now means a whole lot toward his control at the height of his season. Stopping the fly before he gets started is a good method to pursue in handling him. A sharp offensive against him is the best defense against him.

Destroy his potential breeding places now and insure against his flourish a little later. Look about your premises and see what you can do to stop him before he gets the jump on you.

AN ANNUAL EDITORIAL

The beautiful trees are turning a beautiful green, the beautiful flowers are beginning to blossom with beautiful blooms, the birds are singing beautiful songs, and beautiful maidens are stepping out in beautiful spring dresses under the beautiful skies here in Gleichen. All of which leads one to assume that all the world is beautiful—but it isn't. It is as cold as blazes up north and as hot as blazes down in Florida.

And his beautiful little piece is written for the purpose of reminding our readers that spring is here, and that Gleichen is truly the garden spot of the broad, wide land.

CLEAN UP RIGHT NOW

Now is the time to clean up those back yards and alleys that are such an eyesore and menace to good health. Some yards are cluttered up with tin cans, bottles, rubbish and refuse of all kinds, making them unsightly an unsanitary. Clean up and do it now, and while you are at it, don't forget to make your front yard and premises more attractive with flower beds and shrubs. Let all unite to make the town the most beautiful spot in Alberta.

NOW, ALTOGETHER

There should be no faction in our little city. There should be a mutual interest in the prosperity of our people.
When we see indifference to the well being of its citizen, we see a town all wise men shun, Success and failure are each a part of life and often those who have made the hardest fight are vanquished in the race.

A city beautiful can easily be made if each of us were to plant a tree or shrub—and then hire a big policeman to guard each tree and shrub to keep school children from destroying them.

"Where are the radicals of yesteryear?" asks a

Government Majority On The Budget Is Expected To Be Close

Ottawa.—Presentation of the Progressive sub-amendment to the budget has set political gossip agog with speculation as to the government majority on the budget. Two years ago, Robert Forke, Progressive leader, presented an amendment along similar lines. It was voted down by a combined vote of Liberals and Conservatives. But then came the main government motion on the budget, and Conservatives and the great majority of Progressives found themselves arrayed together against it. The result was that the budget only carried with a majority of eight.

The view prevails in political circles that a similar situation is now practically inevitable. The Conservative amendment, which still stands, will, it is expected, be voted down by a combined vote of Liberals and Progressives. But afterwards will come the main government motion. On this, such is the view expressed, Conservatives and Progressives will again vote in the negative.

In previous close divisions the government has always found a certain measure of support to the left of the speaker. But the general impression is that the government majority will be small.

Predicts Aerial Warfare

Sir Chas. Higham: Britain Will Never Again Fight Aggressive War

Chicago.—The next war will be fought in the air some twenty years hence, Sir Charles Higham, English advertising man, declared in addressing the English Speaking Union. Chicago will be in as great danger of destruction by aerial bombs as New York or San Francisco, he declared.

Britain and the United States never will oppose one another in war and Britain never will fight an aggressive war again. Britain, he said, "is the policeman of the world and is interested only in stopping any aggression on any part of the English-speaking race by another nation, whatever its color." France, he said, has the greatest army on earth, and with an air force equalled by none could, "with the forces and weapons at their disposal, wipe out London from the air within four hours."

He said he did not seek to be an alarmist and was speaking for himself.

May Ask Bank Assistance

Possible Alberta Sugar Beet Industry Will Need Financial Aid

Edmonton.—Financial arrangements that possibly will be necessary in connection with the establishment of a beet sugar industry in the southern part of the province, were discussed at a conference of Alberta bank officials with Hon. R. G. Reid, provincial treasurer, and other members of the government. The extent to which the banks will cooperate, in getting the industry under way, was the point chiefly discussed.

As there will be a total crop area of some 7,000 acres, it is likely that credit advances of from $125,000 to $140,000 will be required for the first year's operations.

Ukrainians Face Starvation

Reports From Komarno District, Manitoba, Have Been Confirmed

Winnipeg.—The Canadian Hanok, Ukrainian language paper, says, "We have certain evidence that the poverty of the Ukrainian farmers north of Komarno is terrible and that, if there is no prompt action, dozens will perish of hunger."

The paper states that several families are living on the charity of the municipality and that when present supplies are exhausted, "death awaits them."

Dr. J. A. Hunter, Tenlon, who has worked for the Presbyterian Church among the Ukrainians of the Komarno district for 20 years, said that he believed the report to be correct. All crop and garden produce in the district was destroyed by frost last year, and the people had no means of support.

Says Oriental Labor Retards B.C. Prosperity

Delegates Claim Wages Paid Do Not Circulate Amongst White Population

Victoria, B.C.—One hundred and eighty-one delegates representing 80 different associations and societies, met here recently and discussed the Oriental problem in British Columbia and means for its solution. Speakers declared that Oriental labor had been a great influence in retarding prosperity in the province, as money paid to Orientals was lost to circulation amongst the white population. It was declared that the lumber industry payroll last year was $50,000,000 and that one-half of the amount was paid out to Orientals.

Eight Killed In Explosion

Oil Lighter Blows Up In Harbor At Hamburg

Hamburg, Germany.—Eight persons were killed, and three others seriously injured, when a heavy explosion occurred on the oil lighter Saturn, in the harbor here.

The force of the explosion tore apart the lighter, a vessel 210 feet long, hurled her anchor, weighing more than 400 pounds, over several nearby buildings, and blew the body of one of the workers aboard the ship to the roof of an adjacent house. The explosion is believed to have been due to gases formed by the residue of oil on the lighter, which exploded when the worker started an oxygen blast apparatus.

Australia Plans Own Defence

Unwilling to Allow British People to Bear Burden

Adelaide, South Australia.—Speaking here, Premier Stanley Bruce declared the defence ideal of the Commonwealth was a squadron of 10,000-ton cruisers, with submarines. He asserted that Great Britain had assisted Australia to keep away a possible hostile navy, but that Australia could not allow the heavily burdened people of Britain to bear all the burdens of Australian defence.

Agricultural Inquiry

Ottawa.—The cost to Canada of the investigation into agricultural conditions conducted by the special committee appointed by parliament in 1923, was $21,402, it was stated in the house in answering a question. This included fees and travelling expenses and the cost of printing proceedings and reports of the committee.

Manitoba Pool Elevators Seeking Incorporation

Winnipeg.—A bill to incorporate the Manitoba Pool Elevators, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, was ordered reported by the private bills committee of the Manitoba Legislature. The company, under the bill, is seeking authority to construct or acquire facilities for handling grain for the Manitoba Co-operative Wheat Producers, Limited, and its members. It aims to improve methods and reduce the cost of handling grain and to curtail speculation, manipulation and waste in the process.

Raise More Sheep

Canadian Manufacturers Emphasize Importance of the Woolen Industry

Toronto.—To induce the Canadian farmer to raise more sheep, the Canadian manufacturer to use more Canadian wool, and the Canadian consumer to wear more Canadian woolen goods—this is the three-fold objective of the convention of Canadian Woolen and Knit Goods Manufacturers, which opened here.

In his annual address, President Dobble laid emphasis on the importance of the woolen industry to Canada, and urged the necessity for safeguarding this industry in every way.

EASTERN CANADA FAVORS THE NEW TAX REGULATIONS

Montreal.—"The tax on the exportation of electrical power will certainly, I should think, have the effect of discouraging Americans from tampering with Canada's natural resources," J. S. Norris, vice-president and general manager of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, declared, discussing the provisions of this year's budget. Mr. Norris did not think American consumers would be nearly so anxious to get Canadian hydro-electric power with the added tax. Asked whether he considered this was a good thing for Canada, he replied: "Yes, I do."

Government assistance to coking plants, which are expected to be established at strategic points, is not likely to make any difference in Canadian Pacific Railway freight rates on coal shipments from mines, either in the east or in the west. A statement was made by Z. N. Todd, freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, that the rate for carrying coal was now at a point where it could not be lowered, and that no change was contemplated.

At the offices of the Canadian National Railway, it was stated that no comment could be made until the budget had been studied.

Jerusalem.—The students in the men's training college here struck in connection with the impending visit of the Earl of Balfour, who is to open the Hebrew University. For six minutes the great battle fleet met the air with appalling vibrations in its annual force practice simulating a terrific naval battle.

Will Consider Egg Question

Help For Canadian Veterans In U.S.

Relief Will Be Given Through American Red Cross

Ottawa.—No special provision is made for the relief of disabled or distressed veterans of the American Expeditionary Force, now resident in Canada, it was stated in the House of Commons by the minister of soldiers' civil re-establishment, Hon. Dr. H. S. Beland.

The question came up during the discussion of proposed legislation to dispose of the surplus profits from the contents of the Canadian Expeditionary Force during the war. These have been held in trust by the government.

Dr. Beland stated that a sum, not yet specified, would be allotted to the American Red Cross for the relief of members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force resident in the United States.

Report On Resources Ready

Investigation Into Matter of Transfer To Alberta Is Finished

Edmonton.—Premier Greenfield is in receipt of advice from Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, that the report of O. M. Biggar on the transfer of Alberta's natural resources, has just been submitted, and is ready for consideration.

Mr. Biggar has been making an investigation into the matter since the last conference between the two premiers in Ottawa, the points particularly in question being some technical features of the accounting already made. It was understood that the federal authorities would not be ready to go on with the actual consummation of the transfer, as agreed upon between the governments, until this inquiry had been completed and reported.

Seafish Catch Much Smaller

Both Atlantic and Pacific Coasts Report Considerable Decrease

Ottawa.—The total catch of seafish on both coasts of Canada during February, was 49,478,700 pounds, valued at $634,549, as compared with 45,283,700 pounds, valued at $1,200,744 during February, 1921. On the Atlantic coast, the total catch of cod, haddock, lake and pollock was 3,762,400 pounds, compared with 4,218,400 pounds in the preceding February.

The total catch since the commencement of the lobster fishing was 540,000 pounds, compared with 404,900 pounds in the preceding season.

On the Pacific coast, the catch totalled 980,300 pounds, as compared with 1,752,700 pounds in February, 1921.

For Drug Victims

Winnipeg.—A bill to provide for compulsory treatment of drug addicts in the province was referred to the law amendments committee by the legislature. It was introduced by Hon. D. L. Germans Threaten Poles Warsaw.—In pursuance with the German-Polish convention signed at Vienna last August the German Government has invited persons domiciled in Germany who declared their preference for Polish nationality to leave German territory before August 1 next with the alternative of expulsion by force.

Old Age Pensions

Ottawa.—The further consideration of old age pensions schemes is advocated by Hon. James Murdoch, minister of labor, in a resolution which he will propose in the House of Commons shortly.

British Nation's Plan For Permanent Peace

London.—Austen Chamberlain, secretary for foreign affairs, informed the British Parliament and the rest of the world that Great Britain will have nothing further to do with the wreckage of the protocol, but will seek to build permanent peace for Europe on another foundation—a mutual pact between Germany and her late allied enemies. This pact would guarantee the present frontiers of Western Europe against change, and in it Germany would renounce all idea of ever going to war to bring about alterations in her eastern borders as they were fixed after the last war.

Offer Children As Sacrifice to Goddess

Father and Sons in Calcutta Sentenced to Death for Crime

London.—Dispatches from Calcutta report an amazing case of the sacrifice of children to the goddess Kali, at Mandia, near Jabalpur, in the central provinces.

The young son of a former government official, named Mulchand, fell sick, and the family, believing the boy possessed of a devil, decided human sacrifice necessary to his recovery, and offered up his sister as this sacrifice. When no improvement in the boy's condition was forthcoming, they deprived him of food, and bound him naked near a holy place, where he died from exposure.

Mulchand and two sons have been sentenced to death for the crime, and a daughter-in-law to imprisonment for life.

Plan For Franco-Turk Alliance

French Expert Now In Turkey On Pact Business

Constantinople.—Henri Franklin-Bouillon, the French expert on Turkish affairs, is now in Turkey, trying to establish a basis for an alliance between Turkey and France. As the Mosul question is coming up in the spring for settlement, and as Turkey may need arms and credit as well as diplomatic support at Geneva, Ankara is flirting violently with France. Paris has decided the time is ripe to try to settle outstanding questions with Turkey and to make a close accord.

IS NO COMBINE AMONG WESTERN COAL DEALERS

Ottawa.—The Western Canada Fuel Association "has not operated to the detriment of or against the best interests of the public, and I feel the future can, and will, be amply safeguarded by this act," states Commissioner David Campbell, in his report of the investigation into an alleged combine among coal dealers in Western Canada, under the Combines Investigation Act.

The report was tabled in the House of Commons by Hon. James Murdoch, minister of labor.

Respecting the Retail Coal Dealers' Association of Winnipeg, Commissioner Campbell states:

"I am of the opinion that the discussion and fixing of prices is one of the main purposes of this association, but until that is carried to the point that prices are unreasonable or unfair, no fault can be found in that direction. I have already expressed my view that the prices charged by retail dealers, or fixed by the association, cannot be said to be unreasonable or unfair, having regard to all circumstances. And, realizing the efficacy of the Combines Investigation Act, and its protection being so easily accessible to rich and poor alike, one can rest quite content as to what may happen in the future."

Pasteurization of Milk

Calgary.—The legislative committee of the city council, after hearing arguments for and against, decided not to recommend a bylaw for the compulsory pasteurization of milk sold in the city, on the grounds that it would work a hardship to small vendors. Eighty-five per cent. of the milk sold in the city by larger firms at present is pasteurized.

Earl Balfour's Visit

Jerusalem.—The visit here of the Earl of Balfour, former British foreign secretary, passed without incident. Crowds gathered in the mosques, and were addressed by Moslem and Christian orators. Mounted police patrolled the streets, but there was a marked absence of tension.

Prominent Public Men Of The Mother Country May Visit Dominions

Encouraging Immigration Figures

Many Canadians Are Returning From the United States

Ottawa.—Immigration to Canada during February amounted to 2,210, an increase of 203 over the previous month, according to an official statement by the department of Immigration and colonization.

Of the arrivals, 642 were British, 800 from United States and 868 from other countries. Immigration from the United States shows an increase of 168 over January.

Canadians returning from the United States after having been in that country for six months or over, and declaring their intention of remaining permanently in Canada, totalled 2,012. Since the beginning of the fiscal year the number of such returning Canadians is 41,044.

Immigration for the 11 months of the fiscal year to February 28 has been 49,905 British, 14,621 from the United States, and 40,361 from other countries, a total of 104,787. These figures do not include the 41,044 Canadians who have returned from the United States.

May Replace Marquis Wheat

Experiments Show Garnet Wheat Has Valuable Factors In Its Favor

Ottawa.—The production of Garnet wheat may possibly, in the near future, replace the famous Marquis wheat. L. H. Newman, cerealist, experimental farms, told the agriculture committee of the House of Commons. "Under dry conditions Garnet wheat has been known to yield twice the quantity, as compared with Marquis. Its capabilities of high production in seasons of drought, and to ripen earlier than the Marquis, even in wet weather, thereby escaping the possibilities of rust and frost, are valuable factors in its favor."

Experiments, he said, were still being continued by the Dominion experimental farms with a view to establishing the value of Garnet wheat among farmers. It was hoped the growing of Garnet wheat would extend the wheat-growing area many miles further north.

Trouble In Balkan States

Seizure of Airplane Pilot With Maps Causes Suspicion

Vienna.—Bulgaria and Jugo-Slavia are on the verge of a wordy diplomatic war, symptomatic of the suspicious atmosphere of the Balkans.

Dispatches from Belgrade say that a Bulgarian airplane has been seized in Jugo-Slav territory, and that photographs of Jugo-Slav frontier fortifications were found in it. The pilot and passenger, the Belgrade report asserts, were Bulgarian officers.

Bulgaria insists that the plane was privately owned, and that its pilot and passenger have no official status. The men probably will be tried by a Jugo-Slav court martial.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

APRIL 5

THE BLESSING OF PENTECOST

Golden Text: Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Acts 2:38.

Lesson: Acts 2.

Devotional Reading: Joel 2:28-32.

The Text Explained and Illumined

The Coming of the Holy Spirit and the Effect Upon the Observers, verses 1-13. Before He left His disciples, Jesus gave them a great commission. They were to convince others that he is the Son of God, that He lived and taught as only they could fully testify, that He willingly suffered death on the cross for the salvation of the world, and that He had arisen from the dead and ascended into heaven. "Jesus Christ and the power of His resurrection" was a truth which the world would not readily accept. Only through power given them from on high could these men accomplish their great task.

On the Day of Pentecost that power came. There was a sound as of wind and there was an appearance as of fire—symbols of the Holy Spirit. The disciples found themselves praising God in words that sounded strange to themselves and incomprehensible to others, but the important, never-to-be-forgotten fact was that they then realized that the Spirit of God which had been in Christ had come to their hearts also, that he was to abide with them as their Strengthener and Helper, that He it was who through them would make the Christ known to the ends of the world.

London.—Warm commendation of the interchange of visits between the public men of the mother country and the dominions was expressed by Premier Stanley Baldwin, speaking at the annual meeting of the Empire Parliamentary Association.

The prosperity of each unit of the Empire depended upon the prosperity of the motherland, he declared, speaking of the success of the visit of J. H. Thomas, and other ministers of the Labor Government to South Africa recently. He hoped it would be possible to arrange that a delegation go to Australia next year.

He foreshadowed a re-arrangement of parliamentary business to enable members to have a long vacation, perhaps from August to January. The premier also hoped to make arrangements enabling the colonial secretary, L. C. Amery, to visit the dominions during his term of office.

Finds Conditions Deplorable

Miss Agnes MacPhail Sympathizes With Cape Breton Miners

Sydney, N.S.—That their battle was not for themselves but for their children and their children's children, that they might not be forced to live under similar conditions, conditions which language could not exaggerate, was the statement of Miss Agnes MacPhail, Federal Member of Parliament for South East Grey, Ontario, in addressing a mass meeting of more than 1,500 miners in the Savoy Theatre, Glace Bay.

Miss MacPhail stated that she came to Cape Breton primarily because she wished to see for herself if the stories of destitution and poverty were true and not exaggerated.

"I found them only too true, and as for exaggeration, language could not exaggerate the conditions I met with in my brief tour of the district."

Manitoba Loss Heavy On Outstanding Loans

Report States 449 Borrowers Have Abandoned Their Farms

Winnipeg.—The Provincial Government concedes a loss of $669,202 on outstanding loans, aggregating $2,442,100, to the 74 rural credit societies in Manitoba. This represents an estimated addition of $326,137 to the already recognized loss of $343,065.

A report tabled in the legislature by Premier John Bracken shows that borrowers numbered 3,062, of whom 449 have abandoned their farms. Forty-four societies are now being handled by the official administrators of the province.

Receives Threatening Letters

Labor Member Who Attacked Prince Refuses Police Protection

London.—The Daily Mail says that David Kirkwood, Laborite Member of Parliament, has received so many threatening letters, in consequence of his attacks upon the Prince of Wales, in the House of Commons and elsewhere, that the Glasgow branch of the National Union of Railwaymen, has taken up the matter with the home secretary. The latter is said to have promised Mr. Kirkwood full investigation of the threats and to have offered him police protection, which he had refused.

Home Bank Profits Underestimated

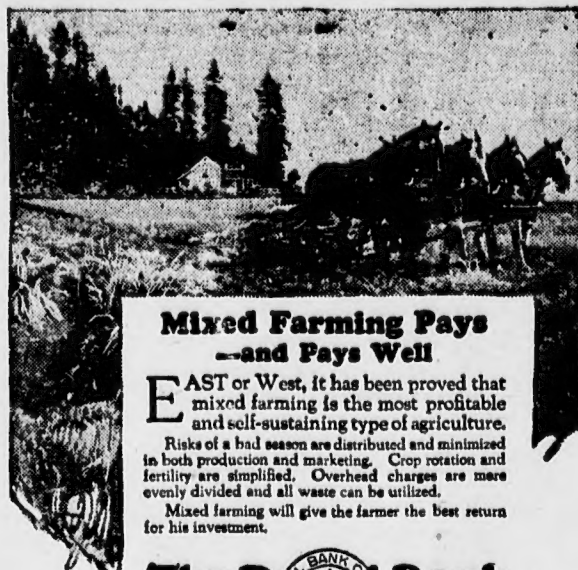

Wrong Rate of Exchange Figured in 1919 Says Accountant

Toronto.—A. E. Nash, accountant, testified, at the hearing of the defence of Home Bank shareholders who deny double liability, that owing to the figuring of foreign credits at the wrong rate of exchange, the bank had, in 1919, underestimated its profits by $20,000.

The hearing was adjourned sine die, but will be resumed before counsel leave for the west, to take evidence, about April 13.

Free Radio Music

Ottawa.—"Why should radio broadcasting receive treatment different from that accorded to the press, the pulpit and the stage?" This question was put to the copyright committee of the house by Gordon V. Thompson, of Leo Feist, music publishers, Toronto, who maintained that full copyright control should be exercised by Canadian authors and song writers in Canada. He opposed the broadcasting of "free music."

Mixed Farming Pays —and Pays Well

EAST or West, it has been proved that mixed farming is the most profitable and self-sustaining type of agriculture. Risks of a bad season are distributed and minimized in both production and marketing. Crop rotation and fertility are simplified. Overhead charges are more evenly divided and all waste can be utilized. Mixed farming will give the farmer the best return for his investment.

QUEENSTOWN

BY JOHN GLAMBECK

Roy Allen, who kept the pound for stray animals in Queenstown, several years and gained quite an experience selling off the unclaimed horses, decided this spring to take out a license as auctioneer. Roy has conducted several sales this spring and in every way proved himself capable and I take a pleasure to commend him to anyone who in the future may need an auctioneer. Frank Harvey, his assistant makes a number one clerk.

It is surprising how many Milo, Majorville and Queenstown farmers go to Calgary every week, some for pleasure, some for business, or both. One runs across them every day. Whenever the new road is extended to Calgary it will make travelling much handier. The agitation for this extension should be kept alive.

When I rented my farm some of my friends and neighbors were naturally curious to know how I was going to spend my time. Perhaps I have given no satisfactory answer to this, in fact I did not know myself; but I did know this, that I was of too restless a nature to sit down and do nothing.

In the first place I still retain 10 acres, including my orchard, where at times I will keep on experimenting along the fruit growing line. I am setting out 800 more shade trees and several apple and other fruit trees this spring. There are various other things to keep me busy, and among these may state that I have made arrangements with of Western Canada's most dependable nurseries to sell fruit trees, etc., to anyone prepared to set out trees.

Now, while I have already proved beyond doubt that both small and big fruit can be successfully grown in this part of Alberta, it must not be forgotten that in order to be successful certain precautions must be taken, such as growing a shelter belt and getting the hardest stock obtainable grown to stand our particular sort of climate.

A few years ago I had an experience along this line which I shall not soon forget.

An agent for a nursery in Southern Saskatchewan, near the U. S. border, visited this district, taking orders and showing pictures of fine apple, plum and other trees supposed to be able to grow in our climate.

I gave him a $25 order, kept him overnight free of charge and allowed him to take samples, of plums and apples grown in my orchard, and he did a land office business in the neighborhood.

Not a single tree or plant of those I ordered grew—and as far as I know other people had about the same experience. To a new beginner in this line such results are very discouraging and they lose faith in the thing and perhaps never try again. On the other hand I have found, that there are reliable nursery companies
